IMPRISONMENT

As to Count 1 of the indictment, the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 48 months. I strongly recommend that the defendant receive sex offender treatment at the earliest available opportunity, along with educational and vocational training as well. I also recommend that the defendant be placed at a facility capable of providing for his specific needs. Finally, I also recommend that the defendant be afforded prerelease placement in a residential reentry center with work release privileges.

The U.S. Probation Office is to notify local law enforcement agencies, and the state attorney general, of defendant's release to the community.

The defendant is not a flight risk and has complied with the requirements of pretrial supervision to control the danger he presents to the community. Accordingly, execution of his sentence of imprisonment is stayed until June 6, 2019, between the hours of noon and 2:00 p.m., when defendant is to report to an institution to be designated by further court order. The present release conditions are continued until the defendant begins his sentence of imprisonment.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

A term of supervised release is required by statute. The defendant's term of imprisonment is to be followed by 25 years of supervised release. In light of the nature of the offense and the defendant's personal history, I adopt condition numbers 1 through 4, 8, 9, and 11 through 20 as proposed and justified in the presentence report, noting that neither party raised any objections to those proposals.

If, when the defendant is released from confinement to begin his term of supervised release, either the defendant or the supervising probation officer believes that any of the conditions imposed today are no longer appropriate, either one may petition the Court for review.

The instant offense is not drug related and the defendant has no history of drug use. Therefore, the requirement for drug testing set forth at 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d) is waived.

Defendant is to abide by the statutory mandatory conditions.

Statutory Mandatory Conditions

Defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Defendant shall cooperate with the collection of DNA by the U.S. Justice Department and/or the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office as required by Public Law 108-405.

18) Comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C §16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which defendant resides, works, is a student or was convicted of a qualifying offense.

19) As approved by the supervising U.S. Probation Officer, undergo psychosexual evaluations which may involve the use of polygraph examinations. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient sex offender counseling program if recommended by the evaluator, which may involve the continued use of polygraph examinations. Defendant's answers to questions by the treatment provider, probation officer and polygraph examiner shall be truthful in all respects unless a fully truthful statement would tend to incriminate defendant, in violation of defendant's constitutional rights, in which case defendant has the right to remain silent. Defendant shall follow all treatment requirements and restrictions. If defendant is eligible for funding from any source to cover the cost of treatment, defendant is to make reasonable efforts to obtain such funding. Participation in treatment does not require payment by defendant unless it is clear defendant can afford it. ## CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

Defendant shall pay the following total financial penalties in accordance with the schedule of payments set forth below.

Count	Assessment	Fine	Restitution
1	$100.00	$0.00	TBD
Total	$100.00	$0.00	TBD

It is adjudged that the defendant is to pay a $100.00 criminal assessment penalty to the Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin immediately following sentencing.

Based on the offense of conviction, the defendant is required to pay a $5,000.00 assessment under the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015 unless found to be indigent. The defendant has retained counsel. He has little financial liabilities and multiple assets to pay restitution, as well as this assessment. Therefore, this assessment is not waived, although his payment may be made at a rate of $100 per month within 30 days of his release back into the community, with no interest accruing on the amount due.

If sought, the defendant is also to pay mandatory restitution to the U.S. Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin. At this time, the parties believe no restitution is being sought by any victim. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), a restitution hearing is scheduled for July 18, 2019, at 1:00 p.m., unless the parties confirm that restitution is not sought or are able to agree on the amount of restitution before that time.

The defendant is to notify the United States Attorney's Office and the Clerk of Court of any change in his economic circumstances that would affect his ability to pay the assessment or any restitution.

The defendant does not have the means to pay a fine under § 5E1.2(c) without impairing his ability to support himself and pay restitution and assessment fees. Therefore, I impose no fine.

A final order of forfeiture is granted for the property seized from the defendant as reflected in the forfeiture order, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 2253.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

- (1) assessment;
- (2) restitution;
- (3) fine principal;
- (4) cost of prosecution;
- (5) interest;
- (6) penalties.

The total fine and other monetary penalties shall be due in full immediately unless otherwise stated elsewhere.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if the judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

In the event of a civil settlement between victim and defendant, defendant must provide evidence of such payments or settlement to the Court, U.S. Probation office, and U.S. Attorney's office so that defendant's account can be credited.
